House.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The house met at 10 o'clock. The senate amendments to the diplomatic and consular appropriation were non-concurrent, and a new conference ordered.

The bill for the payment of Mexican pensions was then taken up and passed. Two million, three hundred thousand dollars is appropriated for the remainder of the current fiscal year, and $4,600,000 for the next fiscal year.

The conference report on the bill restricting to American citizens the ownership of real estate in the territories, was submitted and agreed to.

The conference report on the river and harbor appropriation bill was read in extenso, and agreed to by a vote of 177 yeas, 30 nays. The report sets forth that the senate increased items in the house bill $2,150,000; the conference reduced the same to $1,508,580. The senate added twenty-nine new items, amounting to $1,013,501, which the conference reduced to $857,500. The total of the house bill was $7,459,250; the total of the senate bill $10,620,350; as it comes from the conference the total sum is $9,916,801.

A petition from the Universal Peace Union against appropriations for fortifications and war vessels was presented and referred.

The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was submitted and agreed to.

Mr. Burnes, of Missouri, moved to suspend the rules and pass the deficiency appropriation bill.

After the reading of the measure Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, criticized the committee. In the main he concurred in the recommendations of the bill, but it was conspicuous for what was not in it. It omitted an appropriation of $22,000,000 for services rendered by the Central Pacific Railroad company. The supreme court had held that that sum was due and payable. The committee's report stated that in the suits upon which the judgment was rendered the equities were not presented. The case had been prepared by the Democratic attorney general, and if that officer by fraud or ignorance had failed to do his duty, articles of impeachment should have been moved by the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. Burnes. The committee had also failed to appropriate $2,800,000 to pay a judgment of the court of claims in favor of the Choctaws.

Under the suspension of the rules the bill was passed with an amendment appropriating $27,000 for printing and furnishing silver certificates and legal tender notes of one and two dollar denomination.

Mr. Hohmann, of Indiana, moved to suspend the rules and put upon its passage the legislative appropriation bill, as amended by the committee of the whole, and with certain amendments, making the part of the bill not considered conform to the appropriation bill of last year.

Mr. Burnes, of Missouri, contended that while the Central Pacific owed the government $20,000,000 the government had a right to hold the $2,000,000 judgment to the credit of the company until settlement day came. Fraud had been committed by the company, and it was easy to turn to facts; that a jury would convict every member of that corporation who had been in its management for the last ten years of conduct that would make him better fitted for the cell of a prison than for the statesman's chamber.

Treaties With the Chippewa Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The house received the result of the negotiations between the interior department and the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, looking toward a modification of existing treaties and changes of reservations. It came from the secretary of the interior who states "he has no doubt the commissioners made the best terms possible with the Indians, and while the agreements may not be entirely satisfactory, the interests of the Indians seem to have been well considered. He therefore thinks the treaties should be ratified, and if this is one it will, in his opinion, afford a means for opening up large tracts of country in a way which will enable the Indians as well as the United States to be benefited therefrom."

No Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—There are not so many members of either house predicting today that there will be an extra session of congress as there were yesterday, and the prospects just at this time are that an extra session will be avoided. The concessions made in the house last night by the committee on appropriations are considered by senators a sufficient reprimand for the delay by that committee in properly pushing its work, and there seems to be a universal desire on the part of the senate to concede everything within reason to complete all of the appropriation bills before the expiration of the Fortieth congress at noon on Friday next.

Bills Signed.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The President today signed the bills for the re-arrangement of the adjutant general's department of the army; for the construction of a bridge at Chattanooga; to prohibit the importation of mackerel during the spawning season; to make Tampa, Florida, a port of entry, and a number of others.

Three Children Burned to Death.

MARIANNA, Ark., March 2.—A cabin about a mile south of this place occupied by a negro named Ed Burton, and his family, consisting of his wife and three children, aged three, nine and fourteen years, was burned Sunday night. The family with the exception of the wife, who was attending a church near town, had retired about 9 o'clock. The negro was awakened by a portion of the roof falling on the bed in which he was sleeping, and setting it on fire. He immediately jumped and seized the three children, who were sleeping in the same room, and started toward the door, but before he could reach it another part of the roof fell in, knocking his children from him. He was unable to find them again and had to abandon them to their fate, which he did by jumping out of a window. The boys were burned to death and the father was terribly burned. The fire is supposed to have originated in the chimney.

A Love Feast.

CHICAGO, March 2.—There was a love feast in A. G. Spaulding's office at noon today when the members of the Chicago team reported for duty for the present season. Anson was the first to arrive, and Clarkson, Baldwin, Burns, Daly, Sunday, and the others followed in ones and twos. Kelly's face was missed, and the boys discussed his absence and the prospects of the Postonians until Al. Spaulding rapped for order and proceeded to give the boys some good advice in fatherly way. Tomorrow morning the team will leave for Hot Springs, Ark., where practice grounds have been laid out for them. Their first game will be with the Browns, in St. Louis, on April 7. They will play entirely in the south until the regular season opens.

A Pastor Resigns.

CLEVELAND, March 2.—Rev. Otto Ogden, pastor of the Case Avenue Presbyterian church, one of the most aristocratic in the city, has surprised his congregation by resigning. In his letter abandoning his pulpit he said: "My only reason for this step is change, or rather a growth maturing of the oldest opinions, which make it impossible for me, in good conscience, to longer assent to the doctrinal standards of the Presbyterian church. As a necessary preliminary, therefore, to withdrawal from the Presbyterian ministry, I resign, as in his or I may, this Presbyterian pulpit." Mr. Ogden refuses to tell his plans. He has been with the Case Avenue church four years.

Battle Over a County Seat.

GARDEN CITY, Kan., March 2.—A serious shooting affray occurred at Garden City, Wichita county, last night, wherein two men were killed and seven others seriously, perhaps fatally, shot. There was a row between citizens of Leoti and Garden City over the removal of the county seat, a drunken man started shooting, and there was a battle. William Radins, druggist; Charles Colver, liveryman; both of Leoti, were killed; Ernest Dinning, Frank Jones, a son of the mayor, Johnson, and Al. Bovey, all of Leoti, were fatally wounded. Details are meagre.

Arranging for a Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Frank Glover, the champion heavy-weight of Illinois, has challenged Jack Burke to fight to a finish, under rules of the London prize ring, for $2,500 a side, within 500 miles of Chicago, and ten weeks from signing articles. Burke replied to him that as he is engaged in a lucrative business, $2,500 is not enough to induce him to fight. He is, however, willing to fight Glover to a finish with skin gloves, Marquis of Queensberry rules, in eight or ten weeks from signing articles, for $5,000 a side.

A Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The fire caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp in the saloon of Upland & Co., at 110 Broadway, yesterday morning, came very near resulting in the loss of life. Two families in the upper floors escaped in their night clothes, with the exception of Mrs. Doan, Mrs. Hastnett and her daughter, who were rescued by the firemen by sliding down a rope. They were afterward removed to the hospital.

Arrested on a Charge of Murder.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 2.—An Italian, named Q. Tranter, was arrested here last night, charged with murdering a fellow countryman in Chicago last dispute over a game of cards. A copy of an Italian paper of Chicago, giving an account of the crime, was found on him, and a slash on the wrist. He fills the description of the murderer.

Printers Strike in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 2.—The printers in all the English newspaper offices in this city struck this afternoon for an advance of five cents per thousand. Sixty-five men quit work. The job printers also struck for an increase in pay, increasing the number of strikers to 200.

Death of an Old Fireman.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Zophar Mills, one of the oldest and best known survivors of the old volunteer fire department of this city and president of the Exempt Firemen's association, died last night of heart disease. He was seventy-seven years old, and was a merchant in naval stores.

Closing Down Indefinitely.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 2.—It is reported that the Candeo Knicker company will close March 13 for an indefinite period. This will throw 1,000 hands out of employment. The company, it is said, has an immense amount of finished stock on hand.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

THE RAILROAD AUTHORITIES AT LAST DEFINE THE LAW.

Or They Give a What It Means—No More Newspaper Passes or Theatrical Rates.

Communication Tickets Will Be Sold as Herebefore—Methods of the New Law.

CHICAGO, March 2.—The general passenger agents of the various roads in the Southwestern Passenger association have just submitted to the general managers their report regarding the interpretation and application of the interstate-commerce law as relating to passenger traffic. The recommendations made as regards the future conduct of the traffic by those roads will have yet to be ratified by the general managers. As the Western and Northwestern Passenger association, as well as the passenger department of the Central Traffic association, have recommended the adoption of substantially the same method for doing the business under the new law, the report is of more than ordinary interest.

The main difficulties, the report says, encountered in giving practical effect to the best features of the law are found in Section 22. In relation to the proviso therein that, "Nothing in this act shall apply to the issuance of mileage, excursion or communication passenger tickets," the view of the general passenger agents is that this simply means in regard to these tickets the rates for the same are not required to be published, as in the case of the regular local tariff, and that they may be changed from time without the required notice.

For more definite and concise consideration the subject has been divided into the following heads: What does the law specifically require to be done by common carriers subject to its provisions? What is inferentially permitted and consistent and not forbidden? What does the law inferentially forbid? Is believed to be inconsistent; or is not desirable to be done? The report says:

"In regard to the first question, it requires that business carried within the United States or territories to or from adjacent foreign countries, shall be amenable to the same rules as apply on interstate business. All charges made for any service shall be reasonable and just. For a like and contemporaneous service, and for transportation of a like kind of traffic under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, a like charge shall be made. It requires that every common carrier shall print in large type, or at least the size of ordinary type, and keep for public inspection in every depot or station, schedules showing the rates of fare for transportation of passengers and property, plainly stating the places upon the railroad between which passengers and property will be carried. It requires ten days' notice of any advance in rates.

"Reducing rates may be made without previous public notice, but when made notice shall be immediately publicly posted. Every common carrier shall file its tariffs with the commission, and shall promptly notify the commission of all changes made in same. Every common carrier shall file with the commission copies of all the contracts, agreements or arrangements with other common carriers and joint tariffs, which shall be published when directed by the commission, which is to preserve the measure of publicity.

"If authorizes the commission to require annual reports. For example, the Chicago & Northwestern is not required to publish rates from its stations to points on the Chicago, St. Paul, Minnesota & Omaha. Competing lines are not so compelled to interchange business from a common point to a point local to one of them, and on which that one would otherwise get the entire haul. Provided, however, that if such connecting link receives business from one connecting it must not discriminate against other sections.

"Regarding subject No. 2 the law inferentially permits first, second and third (emigrant) classes of passengers if the accommodations are as varied as the classes. Children under five years of age, accompanied by parents or guardians, may be carried free; children of five or under twelve years of age may be carried at half fare. It inferentially permits special additional charges for special trains or other unusual service. It inferentially permits a variation in charges based upon reduced availability of the ticket. It inferentially permits the issuance of mileage, excursion or accommodation passenger tickets, but does not permit a discrimination in favor of any person.

"For example, rates made in favor of any organized body, religious, secular, social, etc., must be contemporaneously available to any person. It permits reduced rates to ministers of religion and free transportation to railroad employees. As the greater includes the less, it also inferentially permits the issue of reduced rates to railway employees. The question of passes or reduced rates for the families of railroad employees is referred to the general managers for determination. Mileage tickets may be sold at any rate not greater than the legal fare that the common carrier may elect to charge, but they cannot be sold at different rates to different individuals or firms. The general passenger agents recommend that if thousand mile tickets are sold, they must be sold to every person at the same price, and shall be at the uniform rate of two and one-half cents per mile.

"Regarding subject three, the law forbids special rates, rebates, drawbacks, or any other device whereby a rate can be reduced or increased to work discrimination against any person. It forbids any undue or unreasonable preferences to any person, company, firm, corporation or locality. It forbids greater compensation for a shorter than a longer haul over the same line and in the same direction. It only inferentially permits giving reduced rates to ministers of religion, but clearly forbids reduction in rates or free transportation to any class in which would be included the following: Theatrical companies, base ball players, bicyclists, theatrical advance agents, students, laborers, lumbermen, Indians, United States officers and soldiers or their families, inmates of national homes of disabled volunteer soldiers, city police, members of the press (as courtesies), hotel employees, freight shippers, charity cases, dumb or blind people, temperance people, etc. The general passenger agent suggested to the general managers no consideration whether some of the most worthy of these cases cannot be continued and reserved for adjustment under the direction of the commission."

The whole report contains twelve pages of printed foolscap, but the above extracts contain about all that is of general public interest.

TRENTON, N. J., March 2.—The first break in the joint assembly occurred this noon. It was all on part of the Republicans, who distributed their votes among the various Democratic candidates in hopes that the Abbott forces, numbering thirty-five, will soon weaken, and with the help of the Democrats, when they break, to elect a Democratic senator who is not as distasteful to the Republicans as ex-Governor Abbott. The Democrats to a man remained to their first choice. The Republicans have given up all hope of electing a Republican, and it is their apparent intention to secure the election of ex-Governor Bello or Thomas Kays. These two are as hostile to Abbott as are the Republicans. The Democrats will laugh at the move of the Republicans, and declare it will be impossible to carry the scheme to completion. The ballot to-day resulted: Abbott, 55; Sewell, 24; W. W. Phelps, 3; Bello, 8; Governor Landow, 1; Thomas Kays, 7; Colby, 1; Potter, 2.

Robbed of $3,000 Worth of Sparklers.

ST. LOUIS, March 2.—Signor Cohen, a well known diamond broker, horseman and bookmaker, of Chicago, was robbed of $100 in money and $3,000 worth of diamonds in a Pullman sleeper, on the Iron Mountain road last night, while on his way from Memphis to Chicago. Upon retiring Mr. Cohen placed his case of diamonds in an inner pocket of his coat, which he hung up in his berth. When dressing this morning he discovered that he had been robbed of the diamonds and of $100 in money. An investigation showed that the occupants of an adjoining berth, who had watched Mr. Cohen's actions closely during the previous evening, and who had jumped from the train at South St. Louis, leaving their tickets to Chicago with the porter, were the probable robbers. A description of the men has been telegraphed to the police of all the large cities.

His One Hundredth Birthday.

COSMOCETON, O., March 2.—James Crowther, of Perry township, celebrated his one hundredth birthday yesterday. He was born February 28, 1787, in Baltimore county, Maryland. He moved to this county in 1821, when it was a wilderness, and savages and wild beasts were very numerous. He pre-empted some military lands and commenced the life of a frontiersman. Mr. Crowther is the father of fourteen children. Forty-six of his descendants call him grandfather, while he has six great-grandchildren. He is enjoying the best of health, and daily insists on performing light work on the farm.

For Misses of the Mails.

URBANA, O., March 2.—Deputy United States Marshal Flynn came here from Springfield yesterday, and arrested Mrs. Sid McCarty on a charge of sending obscene, obscene and threatening language through the mails. The matter was sent to Judge McCarty, daughter of McCarty's first wife, and was very vulgar. Mrs. McCarty died here last week, and the present Mrs. McCarty would not allow the girl to see him while he was dying. It is claimed McCarty has a wife living in Ireland, from whom he was never divorced. She is said to be on her way to this country, and will soon be here.

Found His Man.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 2.—Detective Hoy, of Minneapolis, who has been searching for James O'Brien, a business man of that city, succeeded in arresting him in this city, yesterday. O'Brien had obtained some $10,000 from the National Union bank, of Minneapolis, on notes, and on leaving that city, the bank people became nervous and sent detectives in pursuit. O'Brien had deposited $7,500 in government bonds in the Bank of Buffalo, and an attachment was promptly secured and the money recovered.

Not a Defaulter.

PITTSBURGH, Conn., March 2.—The sensational articles going the rounds to the effect that C. N. Allen has proved a defaulter (for $20,000) and that he practiced deception in buying out J. C. Bugbee, is flatly denied by Hon. J. B. Tatem, Allen's partner.

Shot for Throwing Stones.

PERU, Ind., March 2.—Int. Honard, while drunk last night, stoned Mrs. Woss's house, and was fired at five times by the woman, one shot taking effect in his breast. He is dangerously injured. The woman is in jail.

Kilrain and Lammam Could Not Meet.

BOSTON, March 2.—The police precautions were such that the meeting arranged for yesterday evening, at the South End, between Kilrain and Lammam could not be carried out. The fight was therefore declared off.

Floating Bales of Cotton.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The barge along Bay Ridge, and between there and Fort Hamilton is strewn with burned bales of cotton which floated from the Morgan line steamer dock during the fire yesterday.

Ordered Out by the Knights.

LYNN, Mass., March 2.—The Knights of Labor yesterday ordered all female stitchers and shoemakers to leave the factory of Runsey Brothers.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE., MARCH 2, 1887.

The editorial and concealed nannies of the Republican continue to lavish unstinted praise on their own work.

JOSEPH B. WILLIS has been appointed postmaster at Richmond, Ky. Willis was McCrery's choice, and McCrery's favorites generally pluck the persimmon.

A DISPATCH from New York says the plan to reorganize the Kentucky Central will undoubtedly prove successful. The scheme is engineered by Collis P. Huntington, Eli C. Baldwin and George Bliss.

J. SOULE SMITH is trying to stir up the old "Harris fight" by stating that Judge Harris is for Harris and against Buckner for Governor. If Judge Harris is working for Harris he has failed to tell his Nicholas County friends of it, for about the only Buckner men in this county are Judge Harris' old supporters.—Carliale Mercury.

The citizens of Portsmouth, Ohio, can sympathize with the citizens of Lafayette, Ind. Their pet schemes to secure a public building at the people's expense to "ornament" their cities have been smashed to smithereens by the President. Cleveland is decidedly opposed to voting away the funds of the Government where the public good and business do not demand it.

We desire to call attention to the fact that, of all our exchanges, only the Cincinnati Enquirer and Louisville Courier-Journal gave a fuller account of the execution of Mrs. Druse, at Herkimer, N. Y., than the BULLETIN—not even the two-cent Republican. And what the Republican gave was taken from one of the Cincinnati evening papers. That's journalism with a vengeance. But, of course, as the "editors and owners" of the Republican have served "a faithful apprenticeship" to their profession, and as they devote their entire attention to making a newspaper, they ought to do a trifle better than people who know no more of journalism than they do of the man who assaulted the late W. Patterson.

Gabe Case, sold his household and kitchen furniture last Monday to the best bidder, and has gone to Indiana.

Our young friend, Frank Kelly, left us Monday for Orange County, Florida, where he will reside in the future. Frank has our best wishes for success.

"It Knocks the Spots."

and everything in nature of eruptions, blotches, pimples, ulcers, scrofulous humors, and incipient consumption, which is nothing more nor less than scrofula of the lungs, completely out of the system. It stimulates and invigorates the liver, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, and builds up the weak places of the body. It is a purely vegetable compound, and will do more than is claimed for it. We refer to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Work of the Telegraph Operators.

I presume there is a more appreciable difference in telegraph operators than in any other class of workers in the world. The old timers delight in talking of receiving fifty words a minute, and sigh wearily as they refer to auld lang syne and the decadence of speed in the present generation. This is all very well, but thirty-five words per minute is considered far above the average, and when an operator is receiving even that number he is pushed, and frequently resorts to abbreviation. Lady operators as a rule are accurate, but are physically incapable of the heavy work entailed by press reports for city papers. Put a lady operator at the instrument in a small city where pony reports are coined and she will take twenty words a minute and do it well. But when it comes to using the stylus on manifold, where a large number of copies is to be taken, a lady does not possess the requisite physical strength to accomplish the task. Operators are eccentric, and their style of work differs greatly. Once they become set in a certain channel they never change, and while experience gives them better control of their work, there is no perceptible improvement in penmanship. Telegraph operators who can carry on a conversation and receive at the same time are very scarce.—Cor. Globe-Democrat.

A War Is Needed.

My recent tour through Texas convinced me that that state is ripe and thirsting for war. Almost every business man in Texas is of the opinion that the state could spare at least 20,000 useless fellows, adventurers and sharpers, and the easiest way would be to have them killed in war; so when that Mexican imbroglio came up they were elated over the prospect of such an opportunity, and were willing to drop money into the hats of every tramp that came along to help to excite the people. They attribute the vast and rapid growth of northern cities since the war to this riddance of unsavory material, and expect that the time is not far distant when they will be called upon to send some of those bullet stoppers beyond the Mexican borders to try and civilize the knights of the lasso.—Cor. Globe-Democrat.

Cures of Baldness.

It is rare that a bald head is found among men under 50 or 60 years who spend eight or ten hours a day at the artisan's bench. How much the strain of modern rapid life and business worry and hurry is responsible for this physical deterioration is a matter of discussion. The opinion is general, however, that the cosmetics, hair restorers, tonics and shampooing fluids used by barbers tend to destroy the hair follicles and produce baldness. Men who shave themselves or visit the barber only once a week, and those who use nothing but water as a dressing for their hair as a rule have a luxuriant growth.—New York Mail and Express.

Mary Druse Asserts Her Innocence. SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 2.—Mary Druse has made a statement about what she saw of her father's murder, which agrees substantially with her mother's dying confession, exonerating the daughter, and shows that Mary had no part in the affair, and arrived on the scene only while Gates and Mrs. Druse were completing their horrible crime.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Superintendent Galbraith.

BULL CREEK.

Census report, 73; number on roll, 42; present, 25. Mary Ryan and Isabel Colburn have lost no time. The trustees are Samuel Burr, William Hardin and Fred Ring. Mr. Burr and Mr. Ring have visited the school.

Miss Bell Trisler is teaching this school. She uses written work in the grammar and spelling classes. She is an energetic and painstaking teacher, and succeeds well in her school work—having prepared herself by special training at a Normal school. I was especially pleased with her classes in reading. There are few schools in the county that have enjoyed as good training in this branch. The discipline of the school is first-class.

PLEASANT HILL.

Census report, 92; number on roll, 40; present, 13. Julius Degman has lost no time. The trustees are Charles Degman, Dr. W. H. Outten and William Tuley. Mr. Degman and Dr. Outten have visited the school. Of the patrons, Mrs. Annie Degman and Mrs. Jane Crucey have visited the school.

Miss Jennie Hudson is teaching this school. She used several books from the Teachers' Library, and has her heart in the work. I found the school in good working order. The teacher had organized a literary society, composed partly of the pupils and in part of volunteers. This kind of organization is always advantageous to a neighborhood. Would like to see more of the kind.

ASH RIFGE.

Census report, 34; number on roll, 16; present, 13. The trustees are Chas. Smoot, Garrett Donavan and John Bouldin. Ida Donavan has lost no time from school.

Miss Jacova Bacon is teaching her second term here. She is a well equipped and faithful teacher, and I found as I expected, a very interesting and successful school in progress. She uses written work and succeeds in enlisting the interest of the pupils, and securing genuine study and advancement. Her pupils were all polite in their deportment.

For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night-sweats and all lingering coughs, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil. By druggists.

Fashions For March.

[From Godey's Lady's Book.]

Very close about the wrists are the new linen cuffs.

In the new dresses the seams of the waist are whaleboned.

Postillion backs, pointed fronts and short sides are seen on basques.

For tall and slight figures skirts are made with wide or narrow plaits and short drapery.

English gowns are made in severely simple style, but are exquisitely fitted and well sewed.

A pretty ornament for a lady's chain is a scent bottle of glass with gold top enameled in rose-buds.

White lace is to supersede the cream tint so long fashionable for trimming gowns and for neckwear.

All shades of brown are fashionable, and bronze-brown is held in high favor for evening gown combinations.

FIERCE FLAMES.

Daulton Brothers' Stable Destroyed and Dodson's Warehouse Damaged.

SICKENING SIGHTS!

Of Roasted Horseflesh Among the Ruins—Losses and Insurance.

The fire yesterday afternoon was the fiercest and most destructive that has visited this city for several years—since the Thomas fire on Market street.

A few minutes after 12 o'clock, drayman Hart Bradley entered Daulton's livery stable to feed his mule. He led the animal back to the rear end, and as he was entering a stall his attention was called to the out-loft overhead by the mule's actions. He glanced up and saw that the inflammable material—oats and hay—was ablaze. The animal had proved more sagacious than its owner and had sensed the danger. Mr. Bradley gave the alarm, and almost at the same instant the flames burst forth. Once released from their narrow bounds they spread with fearful rapidity throughout almost the entire building. A breeze was blowing from the South and it carried the blaze towards the entrance on Second street with almost irresistible fury. The building was a one-story frame, with front and back walls brick, part shingle and part tin roof, with a loft nearly the full length in the center filled with feed—oats, corn and hay. The whole thing burned like tinder, and it's a fortunate thing the fire occurred in the day. Several of the adjoining buildings would undoubtedly have been destroyed had it occurred at night. As it was some were badly scorched, and were saved only by the most watchful and persistent efforts.

The fire companies responded promptly. The Washingtons were first on the scene and were followed shortly after by the Neptunes. The Amazons got down a few minutes later. The building and contents were too inflammable, however, and will prove a total loss, notwithstanding the heroic efforts of the firemen. The flames were got under control by one o'clock, and by two o'clock the smoldering ruins were thronged by people viewing the wreck.

The fine, three-story brick warehouse of Joseph H. Dodson, adjoining on the corner, was in danger at one time, but was saved. The one-story brick connected with this in the rear was badly damaged, the east wall having since crumbled and fallen.

When the flames broke out Daulton Brothers had eighteen horses in the stable, George and Henry Parry, of Washington, five; James Liston, of Fern Leaf, one; Charles F. Lloyd, of near Tuckahoe, one; Lewis Smoot, of near Fern Leaf, one, and Dr. James Thompson one. There were others, probably. Of these twelve were roasted to death in the devouring flames, the loss falling on Dr. Thompson, Mr. Liston, Mr. Lloyd and Daulton Brothers, the last named losing nine, including some of their most valuable stock. They also lost fifteen vehicles, but succeeded in saving all their fine hacks and four or five buggies.

The damage sustained by Daulton Brothers is placed at between $7,000 and $8,000—$3,000 of it being on the building. They had only $2,000 insurance, all of which was on the building—$1,000 each in the Sun, of London, and the North America, of Philadelphia, John Duley's agency.

It is difficult to estimate Joseph H. Dodson's and Dodson & Frazee's loss. The one-story building in the rear was badly damaged, and the east wall of the new warehouse was slightly cracked in the third story. The building was filled with smoke, which may have damaged the grain to some extent. The insurance is as follows: on brick building $3,000, in London and Liverpool and Globe; on tobacco, $1,500, same company; on grain, $1,000 each in the Continental, Northern and German American, and $2,000 in the North British & Mercantile—Dr. John T. Fleming's and —'s agency.

Notes.

Workmen are engaged to-day clearing away the ruins.

A gray gelding was gotten out with his back badly burned.

George and Henry Parry's five horses were all gotten out and saved.

James Liston's horse was a three-year-old Burdine gelding, valued at $200.

The smoke was so dense on Second street that one couldn't see through it.

Philip Wheeler's shoe store and C. Ammon's gallery were considerably damaged by the water—the exact loss not known.

Charles F. Lloyd valued his horse at $150. It was a sorrel gelding, six years old.

Henry Daulton was near the front entrance when the fire started. His first effort was to save his patrons' stock and vehicles.

Daulton Brothers lost most of their harness. Two or three tons of oats, the same quantity of hay, and about 400 bushels of corn was all burned.

Dr. James Thompson's horse was a four year-old gelding, sired by Whipple, and was valued at $300. The Doctor also lost a buggy valued at between $150 and $200.

Dr. John Frazee, Dr. Pickett, Joseph T. Frazee, Sheriff Perrine, Dr. Thompson, Mayor Pearce and brother, T. M. Pearce, lost their buggies, valued at from $100 to $200 each.

James C. Owens, D. C. Frazee and C. S. Leach were among the first on the scene, and rendered valuable assistance in getting horses out of the burning building. Others, whose names we failed to get, also did valuable service at the same work.

The Artificial Ice Factory, just south of the stable, was in great danger for a time, but C. S. Leach and his assistants kept a stream of water playing on the exposed side from the small hose connected with the establishment, and undoubtedly saved the building from the flames.

In addition to those mentioned elsewhere, Daulton Brothers lost a combined gelding, bay, valued at $250; a harness gelding, brown, by Flaco, $250; a fine roan gelding, $200; two bays, $125 each; the hearse team, a pair of grays, which cannot be replaced for less than $500, all things considered.

"Old Jim," a gray gelding belonging to the hearse team, after on-living several mates, met his death in the flames. He has helped to hand more people to their last resting place than any horse in this part of the State. It was the intention to give him a decent burial, but his body couldn't be distinguished from the others that perished.

The finest animal lost was Daulton's stallion, Wilson—one of the best bred racing horses in the country. When on the track a few years ago, Wilson rated high, but he gave slow and was held at $800 by his owners. Several efforts were in made to get him out, but the flames started near his stall, and he was soon a mass of roasted horseflesh. Heard on the Street.

Query: "Which would you rather have, a copy of the new daily or a two-cent postage stamp?"

"Yesterday I preferred a copy of the new paper, but to-day I will take the stamp."

Yes, smart newspaper men down at the the corner. One of the "faithful apprentices" hunted several newspaper enterprises here, and then tried Cincinnati for a while. The other—well, he was editor of a paper in Louisville a few months, but got fired to keep from running the paper in the ground. Brilliant journalists, indeed.

LATEST EUROPEAN NEWS.

VIGOROUSLY ENFORCING THE GERMAN LAWS IN ALSACE-LORRAINE.

All Societies Which Exclude Germans to Be Immediately Dissolved—A Silesian Meeting—Colonizing the New Hebrides—Other Fresh Foreign News.

BERLIN, March 2.—A dispatch from Strasbourg to the Post announces that the government has issued an order for the dissolution of the union of Alsation choral societies, it being suspected that the union assisted the objects of the French league of patriots. It is further reported that the laws dealing with societies will be vigorously enforced; that the measure prohibiting French military men to stay in Alsace, except on special permit, be applied to civilians; that societies whose rulers forbid the admission of Germans to membership, or societies which as a matter of common knowledge exclude Germans, will be dissolved. In a word, the most severe repressive measures are to be inaugurated.

Some law is considered necessary to deal with French emissaries, press correspondents and others, who, it is claimed, have been acting as electoral agents, inciting malcontents, freely visiting fortifications and doing the work of spies. Advocates of an effective Germanization desire the temporary suspension of electoral rights in Alsace-Lorraine, German education in the primary schools and a government administration in place of the municipal councils. The Hanoverscher Courier says: "The Alsations must blame themselves if one result of the elections be the application to their provinces of laws of absolute dictatorship. When made to understand that another with France will be the complete ruin of the province, the Alsations will perhaps be ready to vote for the German candidates."

On the other hand, the Boersen Courier contends that the real request of the provinces will be the work of a generation and demands patience, and the Journal adds: "Their feeling of patriotism to-day shown toward France will revert to Germany when the justice of German rule effaces from the minds of the people the effects of two centuries of French dominations."

Herr Windthorst has written an indignant denial of the statements of Herr Nothling, National-Liberal candidate at Aachenburg, that he (Windthorst) wished to restore the throne of Hanover with the aid of a foreign power.

Mole and child both doing well.

GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP

OF WILD CHERRY, TAR, GLYCERINE, ETC. WILL CURE CONSUMPTION, CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

WE have the gratifying fact to know that it can be cured with GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP. Tuberculous matter is nothing more than nourishment imperfectly organized. Now, if we can procure the organization of this food material so that through the process of electric affinity it may take its place in the system, we can cure the disease. This is just what this syrup does. It at once stops the progress of the disease by preventing the further supply of tuberculous matter, for while the system is under its influence all nourishment is organized and assimilated. It thus controls Cough, Night Sweats, all other symptoms of Consumption. Consumption is one of the most loathsome and terrible of all fatal diseases, and makes the life of the poor consumptive a hell on earth. Until recently that terrible disease has been considered an affliction beyond the reach of medicine; but a new era in the management of pulmonary diseases seems to be dawning upon the scientific medical world, and, since many distinguished physicians have acknowledged that consumption can be cured, few there are who attempt to controvert their opinion. To those singled out as victims to that fatal malady, we offer a remedy sure in its result to bring back health to their poor weakened frames, and joy to the hearts of their friends.

Consumptives, because all other things fail, believe not that MEXICAN SYRUP will. Not a single man or woman perish if he or she will take GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP in time. A cough is unlike any other symptom of disease. It stands as a forerunner, with threatening vice, menacing the health and existence of a vital organ; so commence at once at the first indication of a cough. TRY IT, you who suffer, and be convinced. Do you want to be saved from a consumptive's grave? Then make one more trial. The remedy is in the reach of everybody; it only costs 50 cents a bottle. Is your life not worth 50 cents? I say, make one more trial. Is not your life indeed, worth one more trial? Test the truth of our words, I only by one single bottle; and never give way to despair till you are certain there is no hope. It has cured the sick, and it will cure you. As we would plead with a friend to save him from taking his own life, we plead with you to save yourselves from a premature grave. We positively guarantee a perceptible and untimely improvement when the medicine is faithfully and persistently used.
